The Yearbook of Islamic and Middle Eastern Law is the flagship publication of the Centre of Islamic and Middle Eastern Law (CIMEL) of the school of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS) in London. It is increasingly regarded as the leading international forum for commentary on, and analysis of, emerging issues in a field of study of ever-increasing global significance. There is no more useful and thorough precis of what has happened in Islamic and Middle Eastern law over the last year. With Volume 8 -and the advent of Martin Lau as co-editor with Eugene Cotran- the Yearbook begins an expansion of its purview into non-Arab Islamic countries, beginning in this volume with essays covering issues in Afghanistan and Kenya. The Yearbook will continue to be an authoritative source of insightful commentary and scholarship on relevant developments wherever the influence of Islamic law is felt.

 The organizations from time to time get into agreements and contracts with other organizations and individuals. The knowledge and skill to create and legally form these agreements and contracts are required by them so that they do not get into any complications later. The crash course of business agreement and the contract is thus a great source created for students who would want to specialize in the area. This course will require students to learn about the laws that govern the organizations and will enable them to format these letters which will legally bind the parties. At the end of the course the students will be in a better position to create these letter and complete the paperwork along with listing the terms and conditions on them. Business cannot operate on its own and thus they get into collaboration with other very often, it is then when the skill to create these documents arise which should be done with precision as they in most cases are legally binding.
