Ethnomusicology Why
would a punk band popular only in Indonesia cut songs in no other language than English? If you're rapping in Tanzania and Malawi, where hip hop has a growing

audience, what do you rhyme in? Swahili?
Chichewa? English? Some combination of these?
Global Pop, Local Language examines how performers and audiences from a wide range of cultures deal with the issue of language choice and dialect in popular music. Related issues confront performers of Latin music in the U.S., drum and bass MCs in Toronto, and rappers, rockers, and traditional folk singers from England and Ireland to France, Germany, Belarus, Nepal,

China, New Zealand, Hawaii, and beyond. For pop musicians, this issue brings up a number of complex questions. Which languages or dialects will best express my ideas?
Which will get me a record contract or a bigger audience? What does it mean to sing or listen to music in a colonial language? A foreign language? A regional dialect? A native language? Examining popular music from a range of world cultures, the authors explore these questions and use them to address a number of broader issues, including the globalization of the music industry, the problem of authenticity in popular culture, the politics of identity, multiculturalism, and the emergence of English as a dominant world language.

The chapters are written in a highly accessible style by scholars from a variety of fields, including ethnomusicology, popular music studies, anthropology, culture studies, literary studies, folklore, and linguistics. Harris M. Berger is associate professor of music at Texas A&M University. He is the author of Metal, Rock and Jazz: Perception and the Phenomenology of Musical Experience (1999). Michael Thomas Carroll is professor of English at New Mexico

Highlands University. He is the author of Popular Modernity in America: Experience, Technology, Mythohistory (2000) and co-editor, with Eddie Tafoya, of Phenomenological Approaches to Popular Culture (2000). The Detectives of Shangani IUCN Are you looking for a high quality gag gift that doesn't cost an arm and a leg? Well, with this hilariously inappropriate coloring book you can call your loved ones a 'slut' in style! Containing 30 extremely vulgar coloring pages rude enough to make your grandmother swoon... this filthy coloring book features a variety beautifully drawn and relaxing paisley, henna, mandala and floral coloring pages, each featuring a different offensive swear word or depraved quote with kinky illustrations. Sure to spice up your hen/bachelorette party! Make sure you're recording because the look on their faces when they open this book will be priceless! Each of the shocking coloring pages are printed single sided, so the user can easily remove the pages once they have been colored and they can proudly display them on their walls! Or so they can be removed before coloring if you are planning to use a messier coloring medium, so you don't run the risk of ruining any of the other coloring pages inside this book! So whatever your coloring tool of choice is (pencils, pens, markers, paints etc) you don't have to worry about bleeding through onto the other designs. Each of the dirty designs inside this book range in complexity, from simple easy to color designs with big spaces, to much more intricate and challenging designs for even the most experienced coloring book enthusiasts. So whatever your ability you'll be able to find something right for you and color to your heart's content! So if you have a dirty minded, foul mouthed or kinky friend or family member with a good sense of humor. Or maybe your BFF has done the walk of shame a few too many times recently?

This coloring book could be a great way to embarrass them!

Readings in African Popular Culture McFarland

Since its founding in 1964, the United Republic of Tanzania has used music, dance, and other cultural productions as ways of imagining and legitimizing the new nation. Focusing on the politics surrounding Swahili musical performance, Kelly Askew demonstrates the crucial role of popular culture in Tanzania's colonial and postcolonial history. As Askew shows, the genres of ngoma (traditional dance), dansi (urban jazz), and taarab (sung Swahili poetry) have played prominent parts in official articulations of "Tanzanian National Culture" over the years. Drawing on over a decade of research, including extensive experience as a taarab and dansi performer, Askew explores the intimate relations among musical practice, political ideology, and economic change. She reveals the processes and agents involved in the creation of Tanzania's national culture, from government elites to local musicians, poets, wedding participants, and traffic police. Throughout, Askew focuses on performance itself—musical and otherwise—as key to understanding both nation-building and interpersonal power dynamics.

Since 2000, IOM has been producing world migration reports. The World Migration Report 2020, the tenth in the world migration report series, has been produced to contribute to increased understanding of migration throughout the world. This new edition presents key data and information on migration as well as thematic chapters on highly topical migration issues, and is structured to focus on two key contributions for readers: Part I: key information on migration and migrants (including migration-related statistics); and Part II: balanced, evidence-based analysis of complex and emerging migration issues.

This book is a selection of some of Christopher R. Mwashinga's famous Christian poems, both old and new. They have been carefully selected to present the various countries in which they were written over the years. It contains poems written in more than ten countries over a period of about two decades. The poems discuss poetically a variety of topics from a Christian perspective.

ITU Plenipotentiary Conference African Books Collective

The "Washington consensus" which ushered in neo-liberal policies in Africa is over. It was buried at the G20 meeting in London in early April, 2009. The world capitalist system is in shambles. The champions of capitalism in the global North are rewriting the rules of the game to save it. The crisis creates an opening for the global South, in particular Africa, to refuse to play the capitalist-imperialist game, whatever the rules. It is time to rethink and revisit the development direction and strategies on the continent. This is the central message of this intensely argued book. Issa Shivji demonstrates the need to go back to the basics of radical political economy and ask fundamental questions: who produces the society's surplus product, who appropriates and accumulates it and how is this done. What is the character of accumulation and what is the social agency of change? The book provides an alternative theoretical framework to help African researchers and intellectuals to understand their societies better and contribute towards changing them in the interest of the working people.

Kitabu hiki ni kimoja katika mfululizo wa vitabu kadhaa ninavyotarajia kuvichapisha ambavyo ni mkusanyiko wa makala zangu katika magazeti mbali niliyowahi kuandikia au ninayoendelea kuandikia makala. Awali nilikuwa mwandishi wa makala katika gazeti la kila wiki la 'Kulikoni,' ambapo safu yangu ndiyo iliyozua jina la blogu yangu, yaani 'Kulikoni Ughaibuni.' Baadaye, nikaanza kuandika makala katika gazeti la 'Mtanzania,' na safu yangu iliitwa 'Mtanzania Ughaibuni.' Hatimaye, lilipoanzishwa gazeti la kila wiki la 'Raia Mwema,' nilijifunga nalo tangu mwanzoni, na safu yangu katika gazeti hilo linaloongoza nchini Tanzania yajulikana kama

'Raia Mwema Ughaibuni.' Kama ambavyo nimeshaandika mara kadhaa, mimi si mwandishi kitaaluma. Hata hivyo nimekuwa nikijihusisha na uandishi tangu mwaka 2008. Nilianza kuandika katika 'gazeti la udaku' la 'Sanifu,' kabla ya kuandikia gazeti jingine la 'udaku' la 'Kasheshe' na baadaye gazeti jingine la 'udaku' la Komesha.' Katika magazeti yote hayo, nilikuwa naandika 'unajimu wa utani,' nikitumia jina la 'Ustaadh Bonge.' Jina hilo limeendelea kunikaa hadi leo kwa baadhi ya marafiki zangu. Makala hizi zinahusu takriban kila mada, japo nyingi zazungumzia kuhusu siasa. Kimsingi, jina la 'Kulikoni Ughaibuni' lilitokana na swali nililokuwa ninajiuliza mara kwa mara baada ya kuja hapa Uingereza mara ya kwanza takriban miaka 14 iliyopita. Na swali hilo ni 'kulikoni ugaibuni kuko hivi lakini kwetu kuko vile?' Kwamba kwanini, kwa mfano, mara nyingi kwa hapa ukienda benki sio tu unaambiwa wewe mteja ni mfalme/malkia lakini pia huduma unayopewa yakufanya ujiskie hivyo bila hata kuambiwa. Hali ni tofauti sana huko nyumbani ambapo huduma nyingi hutolewa kama fadhila (privilege) badala ya haki/stahili kwa mteja. Kingine kilichonisumbua sana katika kulinganisha niliyoshuhudia hapa na huko nyumbani ni suala la imani. Idadi kubwa ya wakazi wa hapa ni waumini wa dini yoyote. Na japo Uingereza ni taifa la Kikristo, idadi ya wasioenda kanisani wala kujitambulisha kama Wakristo ni kubwa kuliko wanaokwenda makanisani na kujitambulisha kama Wakristo. Kuna idadi kubwa tu ya makanisa yaliyogeuzwa kuwa kumbi za starehe, hususan kutokana na ukosefu wa wahudhuriaji. Hata hivyo, licha ya 'imani yao haba,' uadilifu upo juu kwa kiasi kikubwa. Watu wengi hawaishi kwa kutegemea rushwa au 'dili' bali kujipatia kipato halali kwa njia halali. Huko nyumbani, dini ni sehemu muhimu ya maisha yetu lakini cha kusikitisha kuwa pamoja na ushika-dini huo, maovu ni mengi mno ukilinganisha na hawa wenzetu ambao dini sio kitu cha muhimu sana kwao. Uandishi wa makala zangu upo katika mfumo wa maongezi.

Ninapoandika makala zangu hujiona kama ninafanya maongezi na wasomaji wangu. Na kimsingi, binafsi ninajitambulisha kama 'mfanya maongezi' (conversationalist). Japo kiwango changu cha elimu si haba, mara zote makala zangu zimekuwa zikimlenga mtu wa kawaida, awe profesa wa chuo kikuu au mtu aliyeishia darasa la saba, Mkurugenzi wa taasisi flani au 'mama ntilie,' mtu mzima au kijana...yaani ni kwa ajili ya watu wa kaliba zote. Ni matumaini yangu kuwa makala hizi zitatimiza lengo langu kuu la uandishi, yaani kuhabarisha, kuelimisha, na kuburudisha. Mapungufu yoyote yaliyomo katika kitabu hiki ni yangu mwenyewe. 'Despite the overwhelming reality of economic decline; despite unimaginable poverty; despite wars, malnutrition, disease and political instability, African cultural productivity grows apace: popular literatures, oral narrative and poetry, dance, drama, music and visual art all thrive.' - Kwame Anthony Appiah, In My Father's House This collection of essays examines the way in which African popular culture has moved centre stage since the early 1980s. The emphasis is on the verbal rather than the visual, and topics covered include the oral tradition, and women in popular culture. Nebraska is not usually thought of as a focal point in the history of black baseball, yet the state has seen its share of contributions to the African American baseball experience. This book examines nine of the most significant, including the rise and fall of the Lincoln Giants, Satchel Paige's adventures in the Cornhusker State, a visit from Jackie Robinson, and the maturation of Bob Gibson both on and off the field. Also, recollections are featured from individuals who participated in or witnessed the African American baseball experience in the Omaha area.

This 10th anniversary edition of the beloved Beaches of Golden Sand, maintains the same poem titles and arrangement as the first edition which was published in 2009 by Marejeo Books. However, the layout has been changed and improved to make it more beautiful. An index of poem titles has been added to make the poems more accessible. The changes that have been made, present the book in a more reader-friendly and excited to handle. The reader will find more than a hundred original, power-packed, and readily moving poems that have inspired the world for the last ten years. It is our hope that this new edition will prove to be sunshine to many lovers of Christopher Mashinga's inspiring poems.

Our Bodies, Ourselves

Univ. Press of Mississippi

In many countries in Africa the role of aunts and uncles has been displaced, traditional cultural practises have been eroded, and not a great deal has taken their place as a source of information about relationships, sex, gender, and the human body. The ABC of all the question we never dare to ask will help to fill this gap. Designed around actual questions asked by young people in southern Africa, it is an up-to-date source of information on all the major issues that affect their lives. The book is, however, not only for the youth. Teachers and parents will find it valuable as the book not only answers very specific, often personal questions that trouble our young people, it also touches on cultural values and practices that underpin our societies - some of which need to be reinforced, and others more openly discussed.
